Dear Christopher:

Now that the rush of the Holiday Season is behind us, I just wanted to take a moment to write you a quick note about your performance at our Holiday Luncheon. I can honestly say – you were a smash-hit! I have had so many wonderful comments about your performance and your ability to mystify. All of us at Yaquinto Printing thank you for your part in making our event the special time we hoped it would be.

Your act is terrifically entertaining and in excellent taste and I would personally be willing to share my thoughts on this with anyone who needs a reference. Here's hoping that 2007 brings you much joy, good fortune – and of course – magic!

Best Wishes,

Gina R. Williams, PHR
